

Response VII. Remember the Ladies

I. RESPONSE PAPER (SEE LECTURE VIII)

Find a secondary source that answers a historical question you find interesting. This topic is open to anything but Chinese history.

1. Define the historical question addressed by the secondary source and briefly explain how the source answers it.
2. Drawing from a minimum of four additional sources (at least two of which must be primary sources), evaluate the secondary source's answer from a feminist perspective.

Note: Both the definition and criticism of your secondary source's answer must be encapsulated within a well-defined central thesis statement that constitutes the motivation of your paper.

Due Date

A draft of at least 1000 words is due by 11 P.M. next Wednesday (December 9) and your final paper of 1500-1700 words due by class time in two Wednesdays (December 16).

II. VOCABULARY PARAGRAPH

Please compose a coherent paragraph that correctly uses all the words you missed in this week's vocabulary quiz and include it in the same document as your draft to be turned in by next Wednesday.
